

Lessons from falling off a roof!

Deut. 22:8 NLT “When you build a new house, you must build a battlement or railing around the edge of its flat roof. That way you will not be considered guilty if someone falls from the roof and dies.”

The family is falling prey to the powers of darkness. As a new generation, what must we build around our homes to keep our families from falling?

Prov. 12:7 “The wicked are overthrown and disappear, but the family of the godly stands firm.”
