

Feeding a Heart for God

Building a heart for God requires feeding a heart for God. Below I've listed a few titles and authors whose writing will encourage you to allow the Holy Spirit to access places of your inner life that perhaps you've never gone before.

These are people whose depth of grace, holiness, and knowledge of the ways of God were born in the fire of God's presence, and their faithful pursuit of the work of God's Word and Spirit in their lives. This list is not exhaustive, and you may not agree with everything the authors write- I don't. But their work will help make you strong!

You can find their works on Amazon, or Christian Book Distributors online- many for a very low cost- let the Lord lead you, the key is pick something that interests you and get started! Dr. Lee
